MYANMAR

Myanmar is one of the last countries of Asia to be revealed to the travelling world. Located between India, China and Thailand, the people of this enchanted land have developed a culture which has endured invasion and change by absorbing and taking the best from those around them and creating their own style and flair.

Visitors to Myanmar will find there is much to discover and experience – from pristine natural regions to golden pagodas to relics from an ancient past.

Myanmar Culture

Anyone who likes travelling knows the importance of learning a few things about their destination beforehand. This helps you get an idea of what the place is like and gives a better insight into their unique customs and culture.

Myanmar Lifestyle

Step aside from the unrevealed beauty packed in impressive historical sites, the Myanmar lifestyle is an amazing allure to discover in Burma Tours. Within 135 ethnic groups, each with its own characteristics making Myanmar's culture and tradition vary from region to region. Their traditional costumes, make-up, and work, all are unique and special. From the big cities to the tranquil villages, there will be more things to see and experience the laid-back pace of life that has a strong connection to Buddhism.
